

creative commons

five years

Join us, and other members of the open community around the world, in celebrating CC's five years of helping keep culture free. Here's how to participate:

If you're in the Bay Area,

celebrate with us at CC's birthday party in San Francisco on December 15, 2007 (sponsored by Mozilla and Last.fm). Details are below.

Not in San Francisco?

Don't sweat it. Go to http://wiki.creativecommons.org/Birthday\_Party and check out other parties around the world.

Spread the word

by posting about CC's birthday on your blog or website.

Leave a digital trail.

Take photos and/or videos, upload them to your favorite platform, and tag them with CC5.

Celebrate virtually

Organize a CC celebration in Second Life.

The San Francisco party

will feature major CC announcements, music, video remixing, dancing, and an open bar.

Words by Joi Ito and Lawrence Lessig

Songs by Gilberto Gil

Video remixing by DJ Phi Phenomenon

Music by DJ Spooky

Date: December 15, 2007

Time: 10pm –2am

Venue: Terra Gallery

511 Harrison St.

San Francisco, CA 94105

Because we're in the midst of our annual fundraising campaign, we will be asking for donations starting at $10 at the door.

Space is limited, so please RSVP to party@creativecommons.org as soon as possible.

sponsored by:

mozilla last.fm