4. Restrictions. The license granted in Section 3 above is expressly made subject to and limited by the following restrictions:

You may not offer or impose any terms on the Work that restrict the terms in this License or the ability of the recipient of the Work to exercise the rights granted to the user under the license terms. You may not sublicense the Work. You must keep intact all the notices that refer to this License with every copy of the Work You Distribute or Publicly Perform. When You Distribute or Publicly Perform the Work, may not impose any effective technological measures that restrict the ability of a recipient of the Work to exercise the rights granted to that recipient under the terms of this License. This Section 4 (a) applies to the Work as incorporated in a Collection, but this does not require that the Collection apart from the Work itself to be subject to the terms of this License. If You create a Collection, upon notice from any Licensor You must, to the extent practicable, remove from it any credit required in Section 4 (d), as requested. If You create a Derivative Work, upon notice from any Licensor You must, to the extent practicable, remove from it any credit required in Section 4 (d), as requested.

b. You may Distribute or Publicly Perform a Derivative Work only under the conditions of: (i) this License; (ii) a later version of this License with the same License Elements; (iii): a Creative Commons license from another jurisdiction (and either this or a later license version) that contains the same License Elements, for example, the license Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAl...

This Section 4 (b) applies to the Derivative Work as incorporated in a Collection, but this does not require the Collection apart from the Derivative Work itself to be subject to the terms of this License.

c. You may not exercise any rights granted in Section 3 in any manner that is primarily intended for or directed toward commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. The exchange of the Work by means of digital file-sharing will not be considered commercial use primarily oriented or directed toward commercial advantage or private monetary compensation, provided there is no payment of any monetary compensation in connection with the exchange of copyrighted works.

d. If You Distribute or Publicly Perform the Work or any Derivative Work or Collection, must, unless an application has been made under Section 4 (a), keep intact all copyright notices for the Work. The credits required by this Section 4 (d) can be implemented in any reasonable manner, provided that in the case of a Derivative Work or Collection, the credits appear if a credit for all contributing authors of the Derivative Work or Collection appears then as part of these credits and in a manner at least as prominent as the credits for the other contributing authors. To avoid any doubt, You may only use the credit required by this Section for the purpose of attribution in the manner provided above and in order to exercise its rights under this License. You may not implicitly or explicitly assert or imply that there is connection to the Original Author, Licensor and / or Attribution Parties, or may suggest that is sponsored or endorsement thereof, unless so obtained prior express authorization in writing by the Original Author, Licensor and / or Attribution Parties.
